10:04 Ben Lerner, 2015-09-15 Ben Lerner is a brilliant novelist and one unafraid to make of the novel something truly new 10 04 is a work of endless wit pleasure relevance and vitality Rachel Kushner author of The Flamethrowers Leaving the Atocha Station was hailed as one of the truest and funniest novels of his generation Lorin Stein New York Review of Books a work so luminously original in style and form as to seem like a premonition a comet from the future Geoff Dyer The Observer Now Lerner's second novel departs from Atocha's exquisite ironies in order to explore new territories of thought and feeling In the last year the narrator of 10 04 has enjoyed unexpected literary success has been diagnosed with a potentially fatal heart condition and has been asked by his best friend to help her conceive a child despite his dating a rising star in the visual arts In a New York of increasingly frequent super storms and political unrest he must reckon with his biological mortality the possibility of a literary afterlife and the prospect of unconventional fatherhood in a city that might soon be under water In prose that Jonathan Franzen has called hilarious cracklingly intelligent and original in every sentence Lerner captures what it's like to be alive now when the difficulty of imagining a future has changed our relation to both our present and our past Exploring sex friendship medicine memory art and politics 10 04 is both a riveting work of fiction and a brilliant examination of the role fiction plays in our lives
