The Forgotten Rohingya: Their Struggle for Human Rights in Burma Habib Habib Siddiqui,2019 Imagine that you are living in a country that does not recognize you as a citizen in spite of the fact that your people have maintained a continuous existence there for several centuries If that was not enough of a traumatic experience consider that because of your racial ethnic and religious identity other ethnic groups that are fighting the brutal military regime in your country for their self determination and human rights consider you as settlers from a neighboring country It must be your worst nightmare when you realize that half of your people almost 2 million have been forced to take asylum or refuge outside and you may be the next in line to seek a way out of this living hell of xenophobia discrimination intolerance racism and bigotry The victims are the Rohingya people of Burma Myanmar Because of their religion race ethnicity color and language they are the most discriminated and persecuted people in our planet Some argue that they are also one of the most forgotten The Myanmar military regime has denied their citizenship rights claiming that they are illegal settlers from nearby Bangladesh who have moved into Arakan during the British occupation of Burma in the 19th century Is there any truth to such allegations Does the military junta apply the same litmus test against all ethnic and religious groups in matters of citizenship What is the basis for a nation s claim to self determination Must a people wander in the wilderness for two millennia and suffer repeated persecution humiliation and genocide to qualify How about the rights of a minority community to survive with their culture and traditions intact Do they need to be children of a higher God to qualify What makes the children of a lesser God to be forgotten and denied the same treatment and privilege that was granted hitherto to other nations For much of its history Burma has been ruled by military As has once again been demonstrated recently they are brutal savage and tyrannical They have ignored people s verdict in the election and imprisoned leaders and workers of the democracy movement They cannot be guarantors or protectors of human rights of anyone let alone religious and ethnic minorities Do you know that the Rohingyas face cruel restriction on marriage and those married without government authorization are paraded naked on the streets Are restricted from traveling outside their villages Have no legal right to own land or property Are restricted from getting education finding work getting medical and health care Are subjected to land confiscation forced eviction and destruction of homes offices schools mosques shops etc and face religious persecution on a daily basis Are victims of staged riots forced starvation arbitrary taxation extortion arrest torture and extra judicial killings Are forced to do slave labor for establishment of government infrastructure new Buddhist settlements pagodas and monasteries on evicted lands with the government intent of changing the landscape and demography of Arakan Are forced to convert to Buddhism or worship Buddha Do you know that when it comes to the Rohingya people the Burmese government doesn't uphold any of the Articles of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights Nothing can excuse us from the criminal silence that we practice in not voicing our concern about the plight of the Rohingya people The Forgotten Rohingya makes a strong case for mobilizing concerned citizens of our globe to ease their sufferings The author analyzes origin of the Rohingya people and offers ideas to solve their problem The author also discusses problems of xenophobia and racism which are so rampant in this country of many races ethnicities and religions He also analyzes the role of Daw Suu Kyi and failure of Burma's orange revolution Elmer Again David McKee, 2012 It's coming up to Elmer's Day the day when all gray elephants paint themselves in bright colors Life seems far too quiet for Elmer the patchwork elephant so he thinks up a fantastic joke to play on the other elephants while they're asleep
