

Our systems have been integrated with more than 200 ERP products, including countless custom in-house ERP systems. We offer detailed scheduling functionality that ERP systems do not have. Our system's in-built integration features mean that two-way synchronization of data can be obtained without programming.

INTEGRATION APPROACH

Our system's capability encompasses the following:

- We do not replace current systems - we enable them
- We do not scale-down existing systems' functionality - we enhance it
- We have phenomenal experience and skills in how to fully integrate all our complex solutions such as legacy and/or in-house written systems
- Our systems do not force our clients to implement the most complex solution
- We value-make and customise a solution that will fit your needs at the end
- We encourage our clients to start small and then build heavy additional use learning curve grows and as the system pays back for itself
